

Forecast For Scotland
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Wednesday 14 Jul 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:

Most places dry and warm with sunny spells.

Today:

Most places will have a dry and warm day with plenty of sunshine. Still some haar lingering in the Northeast. Also mist and low cloud coming into the West Coast later with a little drizzle.

Tonight:

Clear periods in east at first, then extensive mist and low cloud crossing the country overnight. Also a little drizzle, especially in the west. Dry, clearer conditions following later.

Thursday:

Early mist and low cloud soon dispersing. Then a fine, dry day for much of Scotland with plenty of warm sunshine. Light winds.

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:

Dry, settled weather looks set to continue on Friday and over the weekend. There will be good sunny spells and it will be very warm inland.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.